prohibited and banned mining in the Aravalli hills of Rajasthan and Haryana. The relevant order is reproduced below:—

"ILLEGAL MINING IN ARAVALLIS

Second Monitoring Report of the Central Empowered Committee dated 28th October, 2002, has been received from the Central Empowered Committee. This Report deals with the mining which is termed as illegal in the Aravalli hills. It is stated in this Report that the Members of the Central Empowered Committee visited the affected areas on 27th October, 2002, namely the forest area in the Aravalli Hills-Kota and Alampur Village. Report states that mining operations are being carried out in this area which is a forest area which was being recreated by plantations under the Aravalli Mining Programme funded by the Japanese Government in the early 90s. We, prohibit and ban all mining activity in the entire Aravalli hills. This ban is not limited only to the hills encircling Kota and Alampur villages but extends to the entire hill range of Aravalli from Haryana to Rajasthan. The Chief Secretary, State of Haryana and Chief Secretary, State of Rajasthan are directed to ensure that no mining activity in the Aravalli hills is carried out, especially, in that part which has been regarded as forest area or protected under the Environment (Protection) Act."

The matter was listed before the Hon'ble Supeme Court again on 16.12.2002 and it has been learnt that the ban on legal mining has been lifted in case of Rajasthan State and partially lifted in case of Haryana State.
